

Hi, Bhoomi. 🖐️

This is a presentation. A very important one. You're gonna want to sit down for this.

THE BIG QUESTION

Why Should You Unblock Me?

Presented by Arjun Asthana — the most handsome man in the world, possessor of a certified sigma face, and your future favorite notification.

Let's get into it.

REASON #1

Two Good-Looking People Shouldn't Block Each Other

They should lowkey flirt, dance together, and make the rest of the world jealous. That's just science. Blocking is not on the menu here. 🕺 🕴

REASON #2

I'm a Great Singer and I Need Your Likes 🥲

I post stories. They're fire. 🔥 But without your likes, they're just... sad little stories floating in the void.

Your like button was made for my content. It's destiny, Bhoomi. Don't fight it. 🥲

REASON #3

You're Too Pretty to Not Stalk

It physically hurts my eyes when I can't see your face on my feed. The world is less colorful without your posts. This is a public service announcement.

📋 Unblocking me is basically an act of kindness. You're welcome. 🌷

REASON #4 — THE BIG ONE

I Care More, So I Win. 🏆

I deeply care about you. I know you care about me too — but let's be honest, I care more. That's just facts.

So by the official rules of caring, I've already won. All that's left is for you to unblock me and accept defeat gracefully. 😊

THE FINAL EVIDENCE

Our Spotify Blend Was 98%

98%

Spotify Blend Score

That's not a number. That's a sign from the universe.

1

Perfect Match

You and me. The algorithm knows what's up.

0

Excuses Left

You've officially run out. Unblock me. 🙄

In Conclusion...

You should unblock me because:

- We're both ridiculously good-looking and should be seen together
- My stories need your likes — it's a humanitarian crisis
- Your account is too beautiful to miss
- I care more and I've already won
- 98% Spotify blend — the math is undeniable

So... Unblock Me? 🙄

This presentation has been brought to you by Arjun Asthana — handsome, talented, and deeply committed to being back on your screen.

The block button had a good run. But its time is up. 🗑️

The End. (But Also, The Beginning?) ✨

Unblock me, Bhoomi. Let's go back to me hitting on you, singing, and having a 98% Spotify blend in real life. You know you want to. 😊

— Arjun Asthana, the most handsome man in the world, singing off. 🎤
